Textiles: Embroidering the Truth

Textile Society Annual Conference and AGM, 1 Nov - 3 Nov 2013

Rex Makin Lecture Theatre, County Sessions House, (next to Walker Art Gallery) William Brown Street, Liverpool L3 8EL

This year's conference explores how studying evidence helps us to understand objects. Papers will take a long hard look at first-hand evidence with a critical eye in order to understand what it tells us about the object. A strong ecclesiastical thread is provided by visits to the Anglican Cathedral and Liverpool Archives

PROGRAMME

Friday 1st Nov

- 10.00am Visit to Anglican Cathedral to see exhibition of ecclesiastical textiles and East Grinstead Archive.
- 12.00-1.00pm lunch
- 1.30- 2.30 Visit to Liverpool Archives to see Kemp Altar frontal and talk by Pauline Rushton (curator of Liverpool Museum) on Charles Kempe.
- 2.45pm Registration and tea/coffee at Rex Makin Lecture Theatre
- 3.15 AGM
- 4.15 Lecture by Professor Gale Owen-Crocker. 'Fools in the Bayeux Tapestry.'
- 7.00 Society evening dinner

Saturday 2nd Nov

- Introduction by Pauline Rushton
- Talks and lectures all day in Rex Makin Lecture Theatre - programme to be finalised
- Lunch at the Walker Art Gallery (next door).

Sunday 3rd Nov

- Trip 'over the water' to Williamson Art Gallery in Birkenhead to see A.H.Lee Archive
- Curator Colin Simpson will give a talk and show us textiles. Lunch at cafe at the Williamson.
